

THINKS HOWE GOT CLIENT'S MONEY

John E. Rustin, Representing William Beverly Winslow, Identifies the Man Now Under Arrest at New Haven, Conn.

SAID TO HAVE OBTAINED CASH FROM MANY DUPES.

There Are Two Charges Against Prisoner in New Haven—Reported that He is Known in Several Cities.

John E. Rustin, representing William Beverly Winslow, a law partner of William Hepburn Russell, at No. 233 Broadway, returned to-day from New Haven, where he identified Charles M. Howe as the man whom he charges with having obtained $2,500 from Mr. Winslow last fall by false pretenses.

Howe was arrested in New Haven last Saturday on complaint of George O. Richards, who alleged that Howe had given him a bad check for $225. He was on Monday arraigned, pleaded not guilty, and released in $1,200 bail.

Fearing that he would attempt to jump his bond, Chief of Police Henry D. Cowles, of New Haven, had Howe arrested again on another charge, wherein it is alleged that he obtained money from E. C. Beecher, a prominent New Haven real-estate agent, on a bogus option deal. Howe could not give a second bond, and is now in jail.

Some Alleged Deals.

According to Mr. Ruston, Howe is wanted in New York for still another alleged offense. It is said that while here last year he got $9,000 from a well known professional man for the ostensible purpose of carrying several options on property near West Thirty-second street, which Howe said the Pennsylvania Railroad intended to buy in, acquiring the site for its new terminal station. Howe is said to have represented himself as being on the inside of a number of big Pennsylvania deals.

When Howe was in New York he lived at the Holland House and Hotel Manhattan. Although not a handsome man, he has a most engaging manner and is a wonderfully persuasive conversationalist. He dressed in a suit of style and his pretty blonde wife was equally clothed. Her jewels were well selected and expensive.

A few months ago Mr. and Mrs. Howe took a cottage at Marvin's Beach, near New Haven. The rent was paid by the $225 check which Landlord Richards declared to be worthless and for passing which he had Howe arrested.

Known in Philadelphia.

Howe is said to be well remembered in Philadelphia, where several deals are credited to him. Bailey Banks & Biddle, jewelers of that city, claim to have received bad checks of large denominations in payment for fine gems. Several hotel proprietors at Atlantic City also want to see Wood C. Jackson, of Wilmington, is said to have lost $10,000 through Howe's urbanity.

Mr. Ruston, who has looked up Howe's record carefully, says that the man has been involved in deals in Chicago, Boston and Toronto.

"Howe is certainly a smooth one and we are very glad to know where he is," said Mr. Ruston. "I have not yet preferred charges against him, but will wait to see what results come out of the New Haven case. He gets out of his troubles there I will have him rearrested and brought to New York to answer to the charge of obtaining money from my client."

Mr. Ruston's client, it is understood, is Mr. Winslow. Neither cares to give publicity to the details of the case, and Mr. Winslow absolutely refuses to discuss it.

"It might make me look like an 'easy mark,'" he said.

DEAD WITH HEAD RESTING IN WATER

Victim Whose Face Was Gashed May Have Been Attacked in Mistake for Somebody Else—Coroner Investigating.

(Special to The Evening World.)

GOLDENS BRIDGE, N. Y., May 11.—Coroner Welschender, of Yonkers, was called here to-day to investigate the mysterious death of John Donnelly, a locomotive engineer, who was found early this morning lying face downward in Greens brook. Over the man's right eye there was a deep cut an inch wide and also an abrasion on his left cheek, and it was first believed by the villagers that Donnelly had been a victim of foul play, but Coroner Welschender says the man evidently stumbled and falling into the brook was drowned. He has ordered an autopsy performed, however, so as to determine the exact cause of death.

Donnelly, who came from Philadelphia, was employed in running a work engine owned by Charles A. Sims and Company, contractors, who are double tracking the Harlem Railroad, between Mount Kisco and Golden Bridge. He was inoffensive, good natured, and was not known to have any enemies.

When found Donnelly lay face downward in the water and his friends and knees were doubled up under him so that he was in partly kneeling position. His head, however, was half covered with water.

On the stone abutment just above his head was hair torn from his eyebrow, giving the impression that in falling his right eye had struck the sharp edge of a flat piece of stone cutting the deep wound beneath the eyebrow. There were no wounds on the back of the skull to indicate that he had received a blow from the rear.

Donnelly boarded at LeStrange's Hotel and shortly before 8 o'clock last night left there saying he was going to the post-office. That was the last seen of him alive.

More than five hundred men are employed by the city of New York in building new roads and reservoirs around here while others are engaged on the Harlem Railroad improvements. It is not at all frequent occurrence and some say that Donnelly might have been attacked in the darkness in mistaking for some one else.

BROKERS TO PLAY BALL.

Stock Exchange Members Looking Ahead to Game at Bay Ridge.

On May 15 there will be a game of baseball played on the grounds of the Crescent Athletic Club at Bay Ridge between the married men and the unmarried members of the New York Stock Exchange. The contest promises to be a hustling affair and quite a few bets have already been made on the result.

The unmarried men do not want any fat men on their team, and the married men also are objecting to the heavy-weight division.

A boat will be provided to take players and the guests of the Exchange to the grounds. There will be a dinner after the game at the club-house. It is not believed that any one will be seriously injured, not even the umpire, so an ambulance and a corps of doctors will not be provided. All players who from old age or accident are forced out of the game will be expected to pay their own doctor's bills. G. D. Mackay, J. L. Werden and R. D. Wrenn have the affair in charge.

Says Rats Are Good to Eat.

In an article on the eating of rats and mice the London Medical Press asserts that, "apart from prejudice, there is no particular reason why we should not feed on our domestic rodents." The editor seems to have the courage of his convictions, for he adds: "Their flesh is delicate and savory."

FLINT BUYS TWO CHILIAN CRUISERS

Esmeralda and Chacabuco Are Reported Definitely Sold, and Congress Will Assemble to Approve the Sale.

SANTIAGO DE CHILE, May 11.—The Chilean cruisers Esmeralda and Chacabuco have been definitely sold to Charles R. Flint, of New York. The contract price is $5,150,000. Congress will assemble to approve the sale.

Miss Flint is understood to have undertaken the purchase of the Captain Prat within six weeks.

The Esmeralda is an armored cruiser of 1,020 tons displacement and 16,000 indicated horse-power. She was built in England and was completed in 1897.

Any One Would Do.

(From the Philadelphia Ledger.)

Miss Prim—Well, there's one man I wouldn't mind being married to.

Miss Pert—Yes, I know.

Miss Prim—How do you know who it is?

Miss Pert—I know that you wouldn't mind being married to one man.

She has an armor belt six inches thick, and has four and a half inch steel shields to protect her heavy guns. Her armament consists of two eight-inch guns, sixteen six-inch guns, eight twelve-pounders and six small rapid-fire guns. Her speed is estimated at over twenty-two knots.

The protected cruiser Chacabuco is of 4,000 tons displacement and 13,750 indicated horse-power. She was built in England and was completed in 1902. The Chacabuco has an armor deck 1 3/4 to 4 1/2 inches thick. Her armament consists of two 8-inch guns, ten 4.7-inch guns, sixteen 3.8-inch guns and three small rapid-fire guns. Her speed is estimated at 23 knots.

The Captain Prat is a battleship built in France and launched in 1893. She is of 6,500 tons displacement, has 12,000 horse-power and her speed is estimated at over 18 knots. Her armor belt is 12 inches in thickness, she has 10 1/2 inches of armor over her gun positions and she has an armored deck 3 inches thick. The armament of the Captain Prat consists of six 14-inch (Canon) guns, eight 4.7-inch (Canon) guns, six 2.2-inch guns, four 1.8-inch guns and fifteen smaller rapid-fire guns.

War on Hold-Up STILL GOES ON

Merchants' Association and Other Organizations Not Satisfied with Portchester Graft Investigation.

WILL MAKE A DIRECT APPEAL TO THE MAYOR.

An Independent Investigation Is to Be Made and Any Evidence of Boodle Will Be Presented to the Courts.

The proposed investigation by the Board of Aldermen into the charges of graft in connection with the hold-up of the franchise of the Portchester Railroad, is not satisfactory to the Merchants' Association. That organization, working with several others, will conduct an independent investigation. This was decided at a meeting held to-day.

President King, of the Merchants' Association, addressing the meeting which comprised half a dozen representatives of as many Tax Payers' Associations and Boards of Trade in the Bronx and Westchester county, said that the association would supply one-tenth of the cost of the crusade and donate the services of its office staff.

"If we are to go into this fight," he said, "we must be prepared with the shovels of war—we must have money. How much will your respective associations give?"

None of the delegates stipulated amounts, but said that their organizations would doubtless contribute.

"We don't want to criticize the Board of Aldermen at this time," continued President King. "We do want to arouse a sentiment in favor of the Portchester franchise. We want that application released and given a fair show. If in the course of our work we can get evidence of bribery we will employ counsel and go to the courts with our case. We intend to appeal to the Mayor to send an emergency message to the Board on the subject of Portchester."

A committee was appointed to wait on the Board of Estimates and Apportionment and request the body to act on the Westchester franchise until the Portchester franchise is released by the Board of Aldermen.

TRIMMED HATS, $7.50 and $8.50

We have made these two prices the basis of figuring; have chosen the finest materials, the most exclusive shapes and the most careful workers to execute enough exclusive hats to supply the demand to-morrow.

$7.50 and $8.50. Either price assures you big economy here.

Now, you may go to the exclusive millinery establishments of 5th ave. and they will say $20 to $25; you may go to the other millinery stores near by and they'll say $12 to $15. Not for the same hats, of course, for these are exclusive with us.

$7.50 and $8.50 are only two prices. We've other trimmed hats at $5; we've a good many at $10, and we've quite a few at $15 and $18. If you pay any more than this, rest assured the money doesn't go into the worth of the hat.

Trouble is, very little Millinery is sold at prices consistent with its worth. We do not figure the earning capacity of the millinery any greater than the other stocks—hence the unusually fair prices always in vogue here.

Ready-to-Wear Hats—at $2.95 and $3.50.

Shapes and styles that others get $4 to $5 for. An endless assortment to choose from. Won't you look them over before you pay the extravagant prices others ask? This Millinery Store you'll find is a public safeguard to economy.
